EXPERIENCE

Photographer/Director, Adolescent Content,

Los Angeles, California

Adolescent Content is an agency and studio based in Los Angeles, which I am represented by. I have pitched to brands for creative projects. Articles written for the Adolescent Content include album reviews, college experience, and fashion week/ event coverage.

Editorial Intern, The Hollywood Reporter,

Cannes, France

Assisted staff in whatever they needed as it pertained to fulfilling daily tasks (i.e. ran errands, transcribed interviews, assisted photography department in my downtime) and in writing pieces for the daily magazine period during Cannes Film Festival. Co-wrote street style section for day 6 magazine. In association with the Creative Mind Group.

Entertainment Marketing Intern, Starworks Group,

Los Angeles, California

Starworks Group connects brands with artists. Main priority was to run the showroom (which houses various fashion designers clothes for pull by stylists /artists), logging things that go in and out of the showroom. Also, worked on various projects for the fashion brands for their clients and for shoots. Some brands were Ivy Park, Tanya Taylor, and Huishan Zhang who dressed clients from Nicki Minaj to Issa Rae.

Teen Staff and Teen Voices Editor, Vox Teen Communications, Atlanta, Georgia

As teen staff, I contributed to Vox's online platform writing articles and covering events as part of the working press. My first articles were album reviews. As Teen Voices Editor, I worked with Atlanta Word Works and various community organizations/events creating and hosting workshops and publishing local students work.

Editorial Intern, Pretty Girls Sweat and Teen Diaries, Atlanta, Georgia

Pretty Girls Sweat serves as a health outlet for girls to defeat the obesity epidemic in America. I ran Teen Diaries social media, wrote articles for the website (i.e. interview with Marc E Bassy; how to eat healthy in college) and attended Pretty Girls Sweat events.
